SECTION C: COMMUNICATING AT WORK [16 MARKS]

Instructions: Answer both the cases. Respond by providing only the CONTENT of the message. The length of your answer for each case should be between 80-100 words.

Case 1 [8 Marks]

Calvin Klein specialises in clothing, fragrances, watches, lingerie and jewelry. The word "classic" most appropriately describes Calvin Klein's fragrances such as Euphoria, Obsession, Eternity and CK One. Recently, loyal customers of Calvin Klein have logged written complaints on the company's webpage expressing their disappointment on the quality of perfume they purchased online. They suspect serious adulteration of perfumes as some of them experienced skin irritation, staining of clothes and lose of fragrance after a short time.

As the Marketing Director of Calvin Klein, prepare a message (for the company's webpage) in response to the complaints lodged by the customers highlighting the corrective measures taken to restore the trust of the customers as well as the reputation of the company.

Case 2 [8 Marks]

You have been working for a year as a trainee with Hyundai and Asia Motors Company in Kuala Lumpur. Recently, you noticed an announcement on your company's online bulletin board about their staff exchange programme between Malaysia and South Korea. You are interested to join this exchange programme to widen your skills, enhance your professional development and further your international understanding to gain exposure and learn more about South Korea's work culture, production lines and marketing strategies. You believe that you meet the full application requirements and wish to be located in South Korea.

Write a message (email) to persuade your supervisor expressing your interest in the staff exchange programme and support your request with necessary justifications.
